

Low-wage Workers WOULD LOVE A Living Wage

FEB. 13

WE ARE SEEKING PASSION FOR A LIVING WAGE
at SF CITY Hall

On February 13 at SF City Hall —
homecare workers, non-profit workers, airport workers, and “9910s” city workers
— will urge the SF Board of Supervisors
to adopt a new Minimum Compensation Ordinance that will help raise wages for hundreds of low wage workers providing public services to seniors, children,
people with disabilities and the homeless.

Come express your views and ask SF Supervisors where they stand on supporting raising wages for low-income families. Supervisors could be voting on a Minimum Compensation Ordinance measure that will raise wages to $ 1.86
above the minimum wage.

Lobby SF Supervisors at City Hall to Raise the Minimum Compensation Ordinance

- WHEN: Feb 13, 2018
- TIME: Noon
- WHERE: SF City Hall.
Meet on the Polk Street
steps.

Low-Wage Workers Lobby For A Living Wage

Call your Board of Supervisors TODAY and tell them to support raising the Minimum Compensation Ordinance: (415) 554-5184.

