

Meet & celebrate SF's new union members

One year ago, nearly 100 veterinary hospital workers at SFVS voted to join the ILWU. Last month, almost seventy workers at Anchor Steam did the same. Now both are fighting for first contracts.

On Thursday, we'll rally with workers at the veterinary hospital, then visit workers at the "Anchor Public Taps" to sample their outstanding work. Solidarity forever!

(note: soft drinks and other non-alcoholic beverages will be available)
