

Get on the Bus for Museum Workers!

--- JOIN THE ONGOING FIGHT FOR DIGNITY, A FAIR CONTRACT AND TO STAND UP FOR FUTURE WORKERS AT THE DE YOUNG AND LEGION OF HONOR MUSEUMS ON FRIDAY, AUG. 31.

Following SF Labor Council's Pre-Labor Day Breakfast on Friday, Aug. 31, join fellow union brothers and sisters to participate in a short action at the de Young Museum. The bus will depart at 9:30 AM outside the Holiday Inn, at 1500 Van Ness Ave. After the action, the bus will return everyone to hotel.

For almost a year, workers at this normally sleepy little chapter are battling intimidation, anti-union tactics and unnecessary takeaways.

These museums would neither open nor function without these workers who transport, catalogue, secure and display the pieces and support these exhibits millions of people see every year.

Museum Bosses are:

- Breaking the law by withholding important information that museum workers need for bargaining.
- Intimidating both city workers and museum workers on the job.
- Proposing to drastically reduce wages for future workers -- in one dramatic case by 77 percent.
- Proposing to raise health care premiums
- Sending $700-an-hour lawyers to weaken worker protections in their contract. We estimate, for over 9 months the lawyers have siphoned over $200,000 from the museums into their own pockets.

Museum Workers don't want to strike, but will if they have to.
