

SF State's Labor and Employment Studies Program
announces the Gerald McKay Memorial Lecture Series

Will an Obama Victory Save the Unions?

Professor Nelson Lichtenstein
University of California-Santa Barbara

Nelson Lichtenstein, MacArthur Foundation Chair of History at UC Santa Barbara and Director of the Center for the study of Work, Labor and Democracy will talk on Labor and the 2012 election at 12.10 pm, Friday, September 21 at the SF State Downtown Campus, 835 Market Street, 5th floor, room 553.

Friday, September 21, Noon

Free Admission

Please RSVP to John Logan at jlogan@sfsu.edu

San Francisco State University Downtown Campus
835 Market Street, 5th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94103-1901
(415) 817-4300

The Gerald McKay Memorial Fund

Gerry McKay was one of California's leading labor-management arbitrators. He worked on major cases throughout the western United States, including the San Francisco International Airport expansion and Hetch Hetchy Improvement Projects, and wrote widely on labor law and labor-management relations.

The Gerald McKay Memorial Fund was established in May 2011 to organize events related to labor law and arbitration in memory of Gerry's work in this area. To contribute to the fund, please send checks payable to "UCorp, San Francisco State" and send to the address below.

Professor John Logan, Director of Labor and Employment Studies, College of Business
San Francisco State University
1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94132-4028

Please state that the donation is for the Labor Studies Discretionary Fund.