

Labor Archives and Research Center

Annual Program

February 28, 2014 | 6:30pm

Interracial Organizing and Labor Radicalism

District 65 and the fight for economic equality for low wage workers in the 1930s-1950s

Presented by Guest Speaker

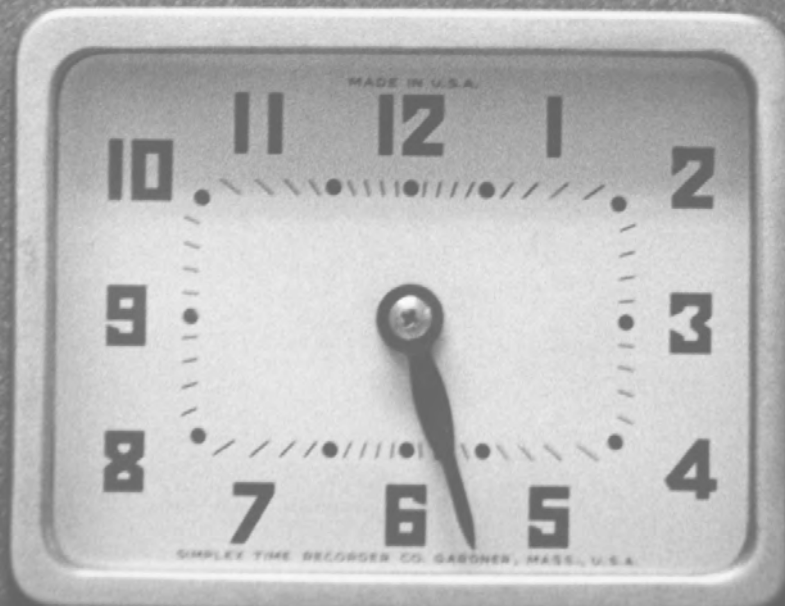

Lisa Phillips

Indiana State University

Music by Vukani
Mawethu Choir

Organizing Update:
Jobs with Justice
Our Walmart

Location: ILWU, Ship Clerk's Local 34, San Francisco
4 Berry Street (at 2nd and King) on the Embarcadero next to Giant's Stadium.

Celebrate the Labor Archives and Research Center's 28th Anniversary!

Friday, February 28, 2014 ~ 6:30 p.m.

Light Refreshments served at 6:30 p.m., program begins at 7:00 p.m.

Location: ILWU, Local 34, 4 Berry St. (at 2nd & King Streets) - Don't Use Mapquest or Google maps!

Driving Directions: Take 2nd Street to King Street. Left on King, then an immediate right into the driveway next to the ballpark.

Public Transit: Take the N-Judah inbound to the ballpark stop. Or, take BART to Embarcadero Station, go to MUNI level and transfer to N-Judah outbound to the ballpark. Or, take Caltrain to 4th and Townsend Station and walk 3 blocks to 2nd and King.

Labor Archives and Research Center, SFSU
1630 Holloway Avenue, Leonard Library Room 460
(415) 405-5571
larc@sfsu.edu
<http://www.library.sfsu.edu/larc>